Forum to help businesses to tap into China

Mudgee Chamber of Commerce will host a two-hour workshop on how local businesses can tap into trade with China.

The NSW Chamber of Commerce is running the regional forums to help businesses make the most of opportunities for trade.

The forum will be attended by trade experts as well as exporters who will discuss opportunities for established businesses in areas including agribusiness, food and beverage, online retail or services such as tourism.

The interactive forum will discuss where the demand is coming from, and offer practical ways to help businesses make the most of trade opportunities.

Following the forum, the NSW Chamber of Commerce trade team will be happy to meet participants one-on-one.

The forum will be held at the Winning Post Motor Inn conference room on Wednesday, March 2, from 7.30am to 9.45am.

The forum is free. To book call – 02 6372 3333.
